

Nonpartisan sources of election information

- In-depth information on candidates, measures, and who supports them: <https://votersedge.org/en/ca>.
- Who is funding California candidates and propositions: <http://powersearch.sos.ca.gov>.
- More on California 2018 midterm ballot measures: <https://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/ballot-measures/qualified-ballot-measures>.
- If you missed the October 22 deadline for registering to vote in California, you can still register conditionally at the San Bernardino County Elections Office and vote with a provisional ballot. Your ballot will be counted once the county elections office has completed the voter registration verification process. The San Bernardino County Elections Office is located at 777 E. Rialto Ave., San Bernardino, and it is open for early voting from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. today, November 3, and November 5. On election day, the office is open from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. For more information, go to <https://www.sos.ca.gov/elections/voter-registration/conditional-voter-reg>.
- The onsite polling location for students who registered to vote using their Redlands campus address is the Orton Center, which is open until 8 p.m. on election day. All California voters can also turn in vote-by-mail ballots to that location on election day and save themselves a stamp. Out-of-state voters need to mail their absentee ballots soon; they must be postmarked no later than November 6.
- Political Science Professor Renée Van Vechten held a Q&A on Twitter on October 23 to answer questions about the upcoming midterm election. You can read it here.