About the Artist

Edward Rangel is a senior Clarinet Performance Major and has been playing clarinet since the age of 10. Hailing from Apple Valley, CA, Edward actively participated in honor groups throughout Southern California and currently serves as the principal clarinetist for both the Orchestra and Wind Ensemble here at the University of Redlands. Since January of 2007, he has assisted Mr. Jeff Apmadoc as a Music Specialist in the Redlands Unified School District Elementary Bands. His teaching responsibilities include all fifteen public elementary schools within the district as well as a private studio of 10-15 young musicians. He also plays in the Redlands Symphony Orchestra as a student musician and was recently inducted into the honor society of Pi Kappa Lambda. Edward is a student of Dr. Kathryn Nevin and he will continue his education in a Master's program following his graduation in May. Tonight marks Edward's first solo performance with an orchestra.
