Sean Edwards began his musical journey at age 10 when he began to play both piano and saxophone. Eventually he decided to pursue saxophone because of its exquisite sound and its role in jazz music. In High School, Mr. Edwards was a frequent soloist in the Jazz Band. In his junior year, he was honored to attend a jazz camp where he studied with members of the Jim Widner Big Band and with A-Records recording artist, Dave Pietro.

Since arriving at the University of Redlands, Mr. Edwards has played in every ensemble containing saxophone. He enjoys performing with other great musicians and constantly strives to raise his musical skills to an even higher level of expertise. Mr. Edwards performed as a soloist on the University's prestigious President's Honor Recital in March of 2011 and is pleased to perform tonight as soloist with the University of Redlands Symphony Orchestra.

Mr. Edwards is currently a senior at the University of Redlands and will graduate in May with a Bachelor of Music Degree in Saxophone Performance. He is a student of Dr. Eddie Smith and the recipient of a 4-year music award as well as other academic scholarships and grants. He has been on the Dean's List for the past 5 semesters. After graduating he plans to pursue his educational goals of obtaining his Masters and Doctoral degrees in Music Performance.
